Dear Citizens,

I hope your new year is off to a safe and healthy start. I am pleased to share some wonderful news.

If you have not yet heard, the New York Times recently ranked Euless as the number one place to live in our nation! Their article compared cities using over 30 metrics, such as affordability, job availability and climate. After all the categories were compared, we landed in the top spot.

One reason Euless is the best place in the country to live is our extraordinary diversity. From the various cultures to diverse classrooms, people from around the world are represented throughout our city. We pride ourselves on not only welcoming, but celebrating all the different walks of life in Euless. More information about Euless' top ranking is available in this edition of Euless Today. I encourage you to keep reading and join us in celebrating this acknowledgement.

Euless Ranked Best Place to Live in the U.S.

In a recent article by the New York Times' columnist Farhad Manjoo, "Everyone's Moving to Texas. Here's Why," an analysis was performed in an attempt to determine the best place to live in the United States. The analysis was based on more than 30 different metrics. After comparing 16,847 places in the country with a population of at least 1,000 people, Euless was ranked as the best place to live in the nation. Multiple factors went into the decision process, with three of the biggest deciding factors being jobs, climate risk, and racial diversity. Other factors included affordable cost of living, school quality, high median incomes and crime rates.

In general, North Texas ranked highly with seven of the top ten locations including Euless, Edgecliff Village, Garland, Grand Prairie, Mesquite, DeSoto and Cedar Hill making the list. Companies are moving to Texas at a rapid pace, and the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex is no exception. With multiple headquarters based in North Texas, Euless' central location provides outstanding benefits when it comes to things such as commuting and proximity to DFW Airport.

The region's low climate risk was also cited as a contributing factor to our being the best place to live. While North Texas does experience some extremely hot days, generally this region avoids major impact from hurricanes and wildfires.

Lastly, Euless scored a perfect 10 out of 10 when it comes to racial diversity. The various communities that call Euless home provide a strong, diverse landscape. Mayor Linda Martin said, "I am pleased that they have discovered what we have known for a long time. Euless is an amazing city that celebrates our great diversity and values our history. We work closely with our neighboring cities, businesses, faith-based and non-profit organizations and our wonderful school districts to promote a vibrant and safe community for all of our residents. Many thanks to the New York Times for recognizing our City and the North Texas region."

Celebrate a World of Flavors for National Nutrition Month®

March is National Nutrition Month®, an annual campaign created by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. The goal is to encourage everyone to learn how to make informed food choices and develop healthful eating and physical activity habits.

The City of Euless has resources to help you become a healthier version of you. There are parks with walking trails, indoor and outdoor pools, a gymnasium, fitness machines, basketball courts, soccer fields and much more. There are classes for Zumba, Pilates, yoga, water aerobics, swimming, dancing, boxing cardio and even a “Cooking With Steve” class at the Senior Center.

Raven’s Grille has healthy food options such as Blackened Salmon Caesar Salad and Dancing Grass Spinach Salad. Lastly, the Mary Lib Saleh Euless Public Library has a variety of books that focus on living a healthy lifestyle with proper nutrition.

How to eat right on a budget:

- Cook more and eat out less.
- Plan what you’re going to eat, so you know what to buy.
- Shop for fruits and vegetables that are in season.
- Watch portion sizes.
- Focus on nutritious, low-cost foods (like eggs) instead of pre-packaged foods (like frozen dinners).
- Start a garden or visit a Farmer’s Market.
- Quench your thirst with tap water, not sweetened beverages.

For nutritional guidance from the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, visit EatRight.org.

It’s Time to Enroll Kids in Outdoor Water Discovery Camp

Get ready for hands-on, STEAM-based, outdoor fun, and learning how water makes everything possible. Your children will explore natural areas; get up close with water-loving animals; build water system models; create 3-D water use sculptures; grow tough Texas plants; get “wet and wise” playing sprinkler games and much more. Activities vary by camp based on age.

These camps are open to students in kindergarten through fifth grades. Camp runs Monday through Thursday in June and July. Cost for each four-day session ranges from $45 to $70, depending on the age of the children and whether they are Euless residents or non-residents. Registration starts on March 1 and is in person only at the Euless Family Life Center. For more information, please call 817-685-1666.

Bring your preschooler to the Mary Lib Saleh Euless Public Library on Wednesdays for play-based enrichment. This fun, five-week program for toddlers and their parents/caregivers provides a rich environment of toys, books and art activities. Families have the opportunity to spend time together, make new friends and talk one-on-one with a different community resource professional each week.

Topics include:

- Early literacy
- Speech/language development and hearing
- Nutrition
- Play and movement
- Child development and parenting

Registration is required. To sign up, visit <https://eulesslibrary.librarycalendar.com/events/family-place-workshop-3>

Skyhawk Sports Camps!

Have you been looking for youth sports for your child this Spring? Have you had trouble finding particular sports such as Tennis, Volleyball, or Adaptive Track? The City of Eules has partnered with Skyhawk Sports to bring a variety of sports to you this summer!

These classes will be running weekly, all Spring until the end of May. Classes are purchased in monthly packages. Skyhawks operates on a skill-based curriculum and is willing to work with any skill level. Skyhawks staff will provide all sports equipment necessary.

All they ask of you is to bring your athletic shoes, water, and a snack!

Registration must take place at <https://www.skyhawks.com/search> by creating an account to sign up!

For more information please contact 817-685-1666, or email aharvey@eulesstx.gov

Spring Break Camp

Are you looking for something for your kiddos to do while they are out of school for Spring Break? Look no further, we have the camp for you! Starting Monday, March 14th we will start our week-long Spring Break Camp.

You will have the options of paying for each day individually, or registering for the week. Please note: When purchasing the whole week, there will be a $75 discount when compared to purchasing the days individually.

Per day option:

$45 Resident/ $55 Non-Resident

Week option:
